
LIVES THEMATIC WORKSHOPS

WEDNESDAY 5 NOVEMBER (11:30-17:30)

Workshop 2: Discrimination of migrants and ethnic minorities across life domains and cultural contexts - evidence from experimental approaches

University of Lausanne, Géopolis, room 2235

Organized by Stephanie Steinmetz and Jeremy Kuhnle

Program

11:30 – 13:00 | Session 1 – Labor market discrimination

Chair: TBD

- Jeremy Kuhnle (UNIL): Same scar, different outcomes? The effect of unemployment on hiring discrimination: evidence from a cross-national correspondence study
- Johanna Gereke (Uni Mannheim): Pretty qualified? The role of physical attractiveness and performance information in ethnic hiring discrimination
- Annatina Aerne (UNIL): The value of diplomas: Employers' valuation of foreign qualification recognition in the childcare sector

13:00 – 14:00 | Lunch Break

14:00 – 15:30 | Session 2 – Discrimination in other Life Domains

Chair: TBD

- Didier Ruedin (University of Neuchâtel): Against people or their lifestyle? A survey experiment about people with an itinerant lifestyle
- Pieter-Paul Verhaege (VUB): Policy contexts at the national level and its effect on discrimination in hiring, housing and childcare
- Carlos Gomez-Gonzalez (UNIL): Beyond economic barriers: a large-scale field experiment on discrimination in German sports

15:30 – 16:00 | Coffee Break

LIVES THEMATIC WORKSHOPS

16:00 – 17:30 | Session 3 – Bias, perception, and behavior: experimental approaches

Chair: TBD

- Franziska Krings (UNIL): Countering Bias Online: The Role of Perceived Discrimination for Impression Management on LinkedIn
- Susanne Veit (DeZIM): What Reaction Times Tell Us About Prejudice: Indirectly Measured Intersectional Stereotypes in Nine European Countries
- Eva Zschirnt (University of Amsterdam): Click to Reveal: Using restricted click stream analysis to reduce social desirability bias and track information seeking in conjoint analysis

